

the GLOSS
AN HONEST LIE

T A R R Y N F I S H E R

1. Did you enjoy the book? Rate it from 1 - 5.
2. The title of the book is "An Honest Lie." How does this concept play out in the story? Discuss instances where characters engage in deception or concealment. How does their behavior affect the overall narrative?
3. The protagonist of the story is known for her manipulative tendencies. Explore the motivations behind her actions and the impact they have on the people around her. Can you sympathize with her choices or understand her perspective?
4. The author delves into complex moral dilemmas throughout the narrative. Discuss the gray areas in the characters' actions and decisions. Can lying ever be justified? Wouldn't it have just been easier if Rainy had of been honest with Grant from the start? Why didn't Grant tell Rainy about Braithe?
5. The female friendships in the story are plagued from the start. Analyze the dynamics of the relationships in the book, both romantic and platonic. How do the characters navigate love, friendship, and loyalty? Discuss the strengths and weaknesses of these relationships.
6. Examine the theme of forgiveness in the story. Are the characters capable of forgiveness, either towards themselves or others? What do you think the visit to friendship represented to Rainy?
7. What did you think about Rainy's plan in the end to lure Taured? Was it a good one?
8. Reflect on the ending of the book. Did it align with your expectations? Were there any surprises or unanswered questions?